THE Batteries before the Mirandola being finiſhed on Saturday Night the 21ſt Inſtant, they began to fire with 24 Pieces of Cannon and 17 Mortars Yeſterday Morning by Break of Day, in ſo brisk a Manner, and with ſo little Interruption, that the Beſieged thought fit a few Hours after to offer ſome Terms on which they were ready to capitulate: Theſe being rejected by General Pallavicini who commanded the Trenches, and who declared to them that the Garriſon had no other Capitulation to expect, but ſurrendering Priſoners of War; and the Fire being renewed, the Governor again put out a White Flag, and ſubmitted to a Capitulation ſent by his Sardinian Majeſty, and which was immediately after ſigned by General Pallavicini, and the Governor of the Place. General Novati then entered the Town, and took Poſſeſſion of the Ports at the Head of 300 Men, detached out of the two Armies. Mirandola remains to the Queen of Hungary, and Modena with its Citadel to his Sardinian Majeſty.

Dresden, July 25. N. S. It is reported by several Hands from Prague, and the French Minister at this Court confirms it, That a Captain, a Tambour and 27 private Men belonging to the French Army were all struck dead a few Days since by the same Clap of Thunder and Flash of Lightning, as they were upon Duty together at one of the Fore Posts of their Camp. A Letter from Ratisbon of the 16th Instant, says, That the French Army in Bavaria does not much exceed 12000 Men; that they remain incamped near Wintzer, on the other Side of the Danube; that their Intrenchments are as strong as Art and Nature can render them, a River on the Right, an impassible Mountain on their Left, with numberless Morasses, Defiles and Pits before them, and that they cannot be attacked but with the greatest Danger. The same Letter adds, That Marshal Toring's Corps continues on this Side the Danube near Platling, and that now it is joined by 3000 Hessians, it may amount to near 10000 Men, so that Marshal Khevenhuller is considerably superior to his Enemies, his Army consisting of above 30000.

Aix la Chappelle, July 30. N. S. The commanding Officer at Maestricht has seized 6000 Sacks of Oats, which the Commissary of Dusseldorp had bought up for the Service of the French Army, but which the Dutch Director of the Magazines at Maestricht had made a previous Agreement for. An Officer of Distinction has been sent from M. Maillebois's Quarters to Maestricht to make Representations, as is thought, upon this Subject. The French continue to buy all the Oats they can find in this Neighbourhood, and the 20000 Rations of Forage, which the Magistrates here undertook to furnish, are almost all sent to Juliers.

Hague, August 2. N. S. A Courier who left Prague the 27th past, brings Word that every Thing being arrived at the Army that was wanted for the Siege of that Place, the Trenches were to be opened before it the Night following, and that the French had made a Sally from the Town, but were repulsed with the Loss of 100 Men killed, and 200 taken Prisoners; amongst which were some Officers.

General Post Office, London, July 3, 1742.

Whereas divers Persons, thro' Ignorance or Carlessness, frequently put Letters into the General Post Offices, and the Receiving Houses both in Town and Country, directed on board of Ships, and to Foreign Parts, without paying at the same Time the Postage, as ought to be done; And whereas Letters and Packets are often put into the said Offices with Money and Rings inclosed, and in Fraud of his Majesty's Revenue, divers Persons presume to send Letters with false and counterfeit Franks;

This is to acquaint the Publick, that no Letters under any of the Circumstances aforesaid have any Right by Law to be forwarded.

Note, That Letters going out of Great Britain (except to France, Holland, and Flanders) have by the ancient Usage of this Office paid the Foreign Postage, and are required by the Act of Parliament so to do, at the Office in Great Britain where the same are first put in.

Note also, That if such Letters to Foreign Parts are put into any of the Country Offices, the Inland Postage of such Letters to London must also be paid on putting the same into such Office

By Command of the Post Master General.
